

A detailed black and white architectural rendering of a large, multi-story institutional building, likely a school or university. The building features a symmetrical design with a central arched entrance and a wide set of stairs leading up to it. The facade is characterized by numerous rectangular windows arranged in a grid pattern. The roof is flat with a decorative cornice. In the foreground, a low fence with a central gate and several young trees are visible, suggesting a landscaped campus area. The drawing is presented in a perspective view, showing the building's profile and its relationship to the surrounding environment.
